Sunny Home

The mother texted the son an image of two big black bags and the message,

“Your sisters bed broke on the boxes I kept me and your fathers divorce proceedings in and they all broke, I am about to throw them out, do you want them?”

In 2004, as part of their divorce proceedings, they negotiated the possibility of buying a home for the wife and their children. After researching various properties, Sunny Home 1 was selected as the key proposal based on its architectural plans, to be bought “off-plan.” The term “off-plan” is widely used in real estate to describe buying a property that hasn’t been constructed yet, relying on plans and specifications provided by the developer. The proposal was ultimately rejected, no home was bought, and Sunny Home 1 never built.
